(Demo pics from an iPad – yours may look different but should perhaps in different places)

You get an email invite or link and click on the 'Join Zoom Meeting' which will take you to the Zoom website and if it's the first time you've visited you will have to 'Agree and Proceed' to eating cookies and then 'Close'

... THIS!

This is Gallery view – you are still TIGER.

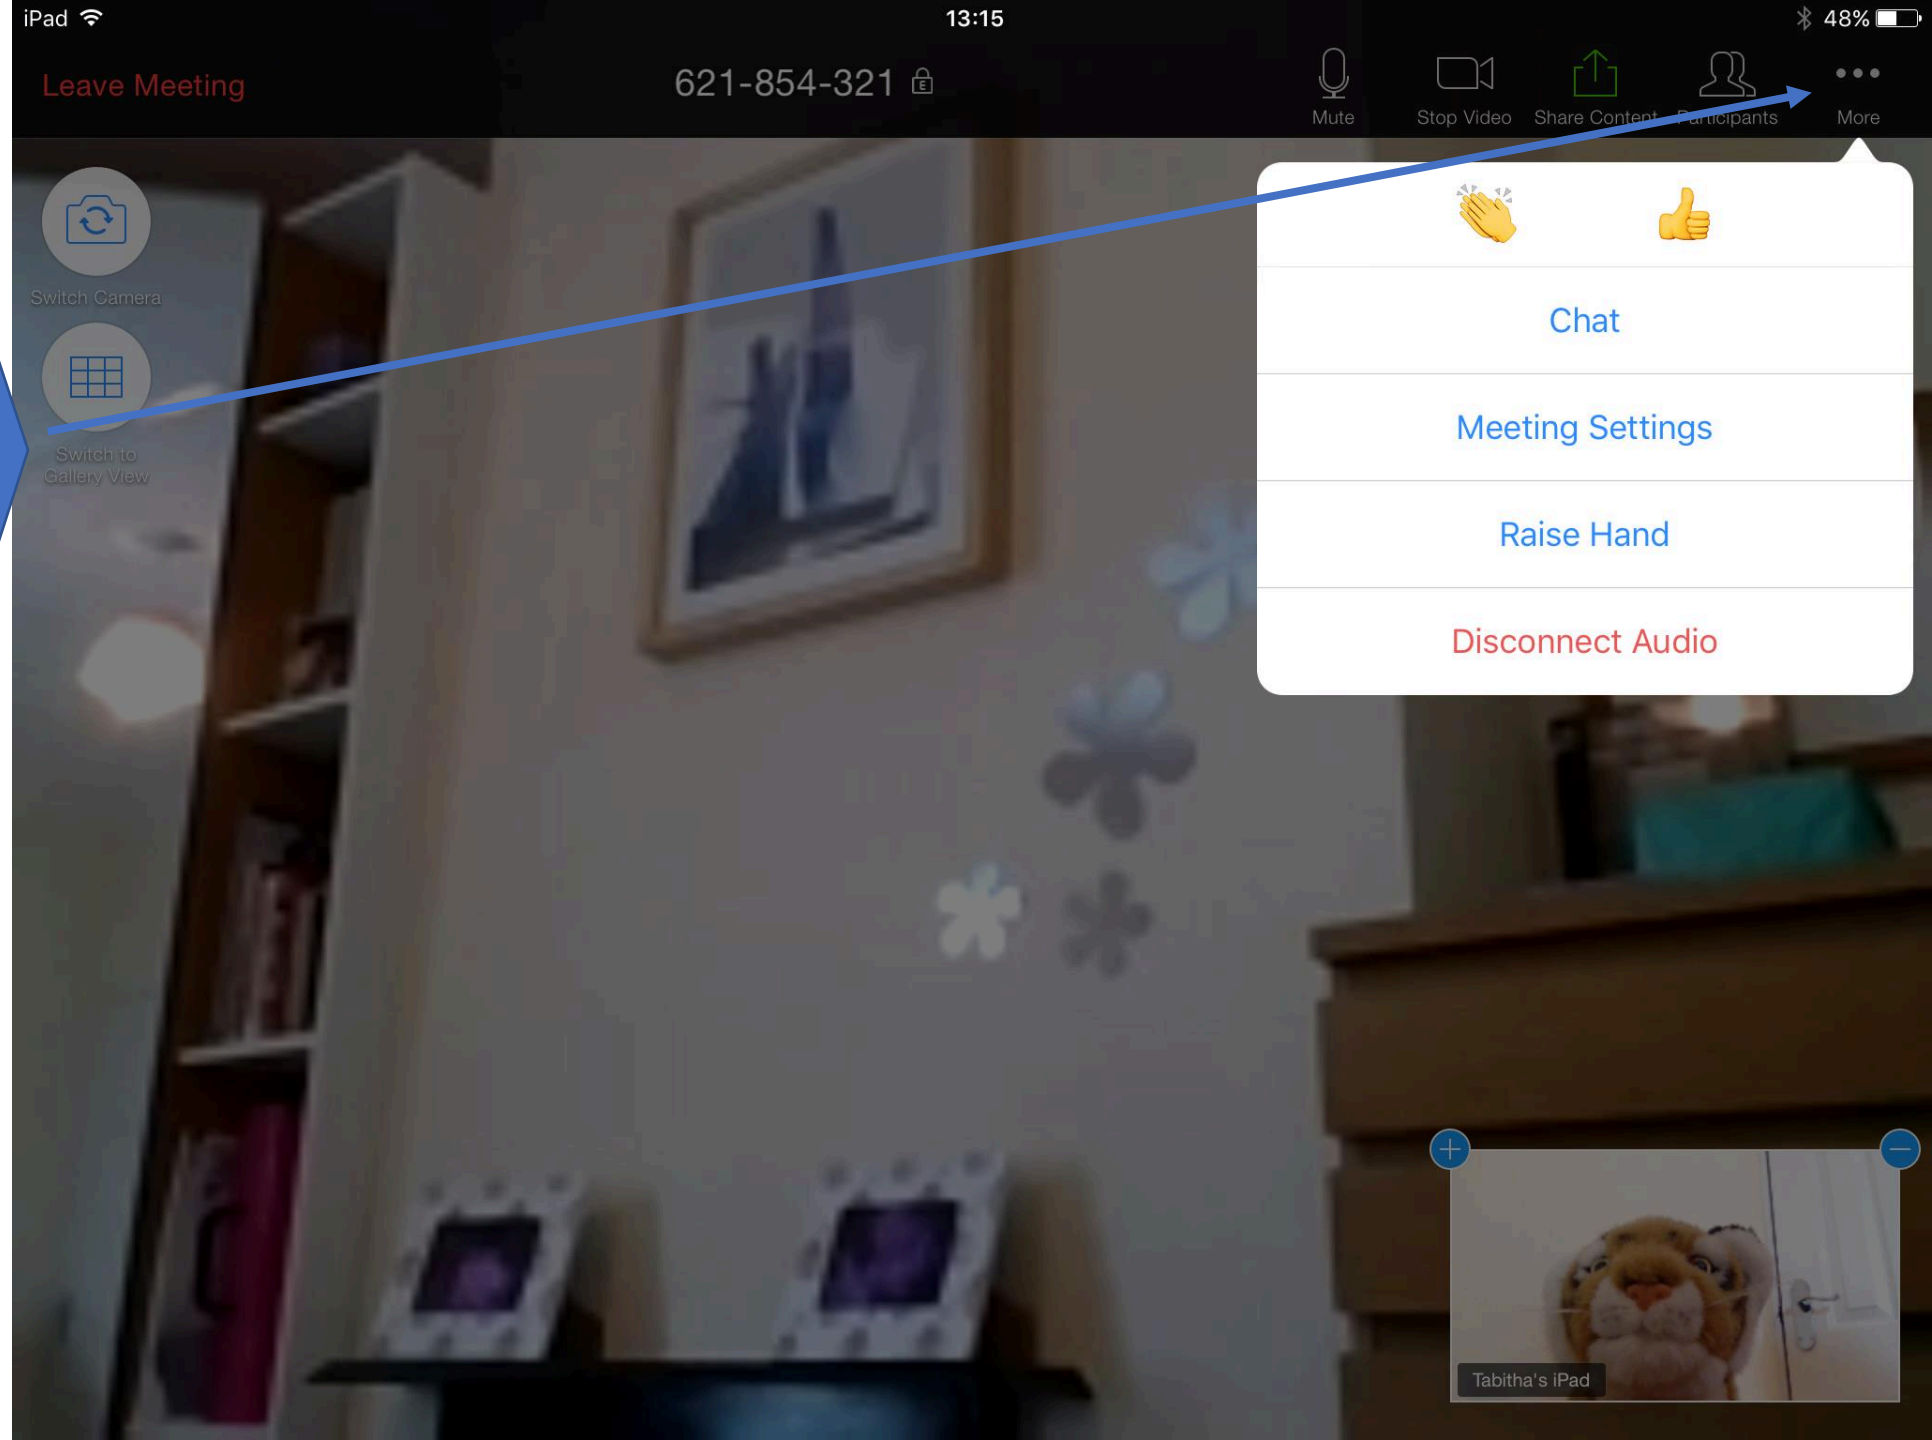

You can switch back by pressing the same button

With the top menu the ...
More gives you a few
more options

You can share clapping or thumbs up 'reactions'

Use the 'Chat' which is where you can type messages to Everyone or individuals (just be sure which one before you say anything naughty)

And you can 'Raise Hand' if you want to get the attention of the presenter like you did at school.

The other buttons you can press is the + and the – at the top of your video thumbnail – if you press the + you get an expanded view of videos, and the – your face will disappear!
